

WE'RE SO GLAD YOU JOINED US TODAY!

WELCOME HOME TO CHESTNUT STREET BAPTIST CHURCH! Thank you for joining us, we're so glad God led you through our doors! We'd love to meet you so please feel free to introduce yourself after service. We also invite you to our Fellowship Luncheon on the first Sunday of each month at 12:15 pm downstairs. Childcare is provided during Sunday morning service.

No matter where you're from or how you got here, you matter to God and you matter to us! Many here didn't come from a storybook Christian home. Our church family is friendly and nice but made up of broken and imperfect people from every kind of story imaginable, all on a journey of healing together through our personal savior, Jesus Christ. There are people attending, visiting, and leading at CSBC who have major hurts, habits, and many emotional, physical, and spiritual issues. Together we are on the path to find what it means to find life in Jesus, to fully follow him, to break free from our hang-ups and pasts, and to walk in grace together. We care about everyone because everyone matters to God! We care about you, not who you vote for, not what you wear, not if you have tattoos, not if you have been through divorce, or are battling an addiction. If you have been abused or mistreated, we care about you!

Our church is committed to know Jesus and serve others as a church family, and regardless of where you're from or your story, even if you have never been to church, or have been burned by church, we believe you belong right here!
